

Courses for international students in the academic year 2021/2022

Department of Czech Language and Literature

KCJ/YCTE Current Trends in Education
Number of ECTS credits:	5	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Kamil Kopecky Michal Kriz
Semester in which the course is taught:		Both summer and winter
Description:
Series of lectures for students primarily focused on modern forms of education and communication. The aim of the series is to introduce and/or discuss several topics devoted to selected contemporary problems of the Primary School education. Following topics will be part of the series: (1) Education with IT support (workshop) with a special focus on educational toys (bee-bot, ozobot, sphero, levitron, 3D, VR, AR etc.). (2) Safer Internet Phenomenons at primary school – introduction to cyberbullying, sexting, child grooming, webcam trolling and other forms of risky behaviour. (3) Media Education (selected questions / issues, and topics) and its form in the contemporary world of global communication. (4) Film and Literature: film and literary education and their forms and possibilities in the current system of education. Lectures focused on selected questions and issues from the field of language/media education as well as contemporary communication studies will be delivered in blocks during the semester.

KCJ/YSAF1: E-Safety I - Cyberbullying and online aggression among Czech children
Number of ECTS credits:	5	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Kamil Kopecky
Semester in which the course is taught:		Winter Semester
Description:
Series of lectures for students primarily focused on the current trends in the field of security in the online environment, with a special focus on the problem of cyberbullying:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- cyberbullying vs. online aggression, types of cyberbullying</li><li>- motivation for online bullying</li><li>- strategies of prevention</li><li>- case studies</li><li>- cyberbullying and Czech law</li></ul>

KCJ/YSAF2: E-Safety II - Sexting and child grooming among Czech children
Number of ECTS credits:	5	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Kamil Kopecky
Semester in which the course is taught:		Summer Semester
Description:
Series of lectures for students primarily focused on the current trends in the field of security in the online environment, with a special focus on the problem of sexting and child grooming:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- cybergrooming and sexting as risky forms of behaviour</li><li>- process of grooming</li><li>- motivation for online grooming</li><li>- strategies of prevention</li><li>- case studies</li><li>- cybergrooming and Czech law</li></ul>			