7th INTERNATIONAL WEEK

AT THE FACULTY OF EDUCATION, PALACKÝ UNIVERSITY, OLOMOUC

First Call

Dear partners, dear colleagues, dear friends,

Since the International Weeks at the Faculty of Education in Olomouc proved to be successful, we would like to cordially invite you to attend “7th International Week” held between 3rd and 7th October 2022.

The aims of this event are still the same as always: to encourage international cooperation, share ideas and experience, make new partnerships, increase students’ mobility, promote various universities and provide Palacký University students with further study possibilities etc. We hope you will enjoy many formal and informal meetings and gatherings during the week.

This event is for both teachers who will use their Erasmus teaching mobility and administrative staff dealing with international affairs who can come within Erasmus training mobility. The event is open to everybody, even to those who are not our official partners yet, so it is not necessary to use the Erasmus+ scheme.

There will be no registration fee. The participants will be provided with refreshments, 3 lunches (Monday – Wednesday) and an all-day excursion (Wednesday). Other expenses such as accommodation, travel costs etc. are to be covered by the participants (it is possible to use the Erasmus+ funds).

We do hope you will be interested in taking part in our International Week. We feel that we, as the university and faculty, have many things to offer. On top of it, Olomouc is a charming city, where you can admire historic sites, lush parks or simply enjoy the vibrant atmosphere of the student’s city.

You will have a chance to promote your institutions to our students at the International Fair, which will be held on Monday afternoon. Please bring along information leaflets and/or other promotional goods.

We look forward to your visit.

With best wishes,

Jana Kvintová
Vice-Dean for International Relations
