

Department of Social Sciences

Courses for international students in the academic year 2025/2026

KVS/YVSSQ – Development of State Administration and Self-Government in the Czech Lands
Number of ECTS credits:	4	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Pavel Krákora
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
Goal of course is to familiarise students with the development of state administration and self-government in the Czech Lands focusing on the sphere of education. We will be following the most important aspects and changes to the internal organization of the Czech Lands since early Middle Age. Special attention will be paid to the period after the year 1948.
Language: English

KVS/YEVSQ – Modern European Statehood
Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Credits only
Completion requirements:	80 % attendance	Lecturer:	Pavel Krákora
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
Goal of course is to familiarise students with the most important events, documents and personalities of European history of 20th Century in relation of formation the modern statehood and process of European integration after the 1945.
Language: English

KVS/YEVDQ – Significant Chapters of European History
Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Credits only
Completion requirements:	80 % attendance	Lecturer:	Pavel Krákora
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
Goal of course is to familiarise students with the most important periods of European history with the aim to capture their relation to contemporary form of European society and culture. After completion, students will be able to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- clarify relation of particular periods of European history to formation of contemporary Europe- characterize the most important turning points of European history- considering the role of particular historical periods in European history- explain causes of European integration- analyse and evaluate the impact of historical events on the contemporary shape of Europe

Language: English

KVS/YHZ1Q - History of Czech Lands 1

Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Credits only
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Pavel Kopeček
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter

Description:

Samo's Empire and Great Moravia. Czech state in 10th-12th century. Czech state during the reign of the Luxemburg. Czech lands during George of Poděbrady and Jagelović. Advent to power of the Habsburgs. Czech uprising, the Thirty Years War and. Czech country at the time of enlightened absolutism. The Habsburg monarchy at the time of the French Revolution and the Napoleonic wars. Czech National Revival. Revolutionary years 1848–1849.

Language: English

KVS/YHZ2Q - History of Czech Lands 2

Number of ECTS credits:	4	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	70 % attendance	Lecturer:	Pavel Kopeček
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter

Description:

World War I and the establishment of Czechoslovakia. I. and II. Czechoslovak Republic - political, economic and cultural development. II. world war, occupation and liberation of Czechoslovakia. Czechoslovakia in the postwar world, the establishment of the communist system. 60s of the 20th century in Czechoslovakia, the Prague Spring and normalization. 80s of the 20th century in Czechoslovakia, the end of the totalitarian regime and the dissolution of Czechoslovakia.

Language: English

KVS/YGHIQ – Gender in the Historical Context

Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Pre-Exam Credit
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Tomáš Hubálek
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter

Description:

The seminar will offer an unusual view of the development and changes in the company's approach to the issue of gender. It is set in a historical framework, which will highlight the main concerns of various epochs and describes ways to solve them in history from antiquity to the present. Will be accentuated most significant historical milestones, influencing corporate behavior, shifts in thinking and behavior of people in this area.

Language: English

KVS/YAEVQ – Applied Ethics in Education for Citizens

Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	70 % attendance	Lecturer:	Tomáš Hubálek
Semester in which the course is taught:		Winter semester

Description:

The course will be emphasis on areas of applied ethics, which relate to the current educational reality, society and democracy. Students will become familiar with various parts of social life, and their links with the ethical theories, learn important values for specific areas and will be able to specify examples of ethical behavior in a context.

Language: English