

Courses for international students in the academic year 2018/2019

Department of Social Sciences 2018/2019

KVS/YVSSQ – Development of State Administration and Self-Government in the Czech Lands
Number of ECTS credits:	4	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Pavel Krákora
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
Goal of subject is get to know students with the development of state administration and self-government in the Czech Lands with the accent of sphere of education. In this relation will be following the most important aspects and changes internal organization of the Czech Lands since early Middle Age. Special attention will be pay period after the year 1948.
Language: English

KVS/YEVSQ – Modern European Statehood
Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Credits only
Completion requirements:	80 % attendance	Lecturer:	Pavel Krákora
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
Goal of subject is get to know students with the most important events, documents and personalities of European history of 20th Century in relation of formation the modern statehood and proces of European integration after the 1945.
Language: English

KVS/YEVDQ – Significant Chapters of European History
Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Credits only
Completion requirements:	80 % attendance	Lecturer:	Pavel Krákora
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
Goal of subject is get to know student with the most important periods of European history with the aim to capture their relation to contemporary form of European society and culture. After the finishing will be students able to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- clarify relation of particular periods of European history to formation of contemporary Europe- characterize the most importatnt turning points of European history- considering the role of particular historical periods in European history- explain causes of European integration- analyse and evaluate the impact of historical events on the contemporary shape of Europe

Language: English
KVS/YKSPQ – Conflicts in the Contemporary Society
Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Credits only
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	David Hampl
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
The seminar is devoted to the problems of conflicts and their wider context, with an emphasis on religious and ethnic conflicts. Students learn to analyze conflicts in the world today. After completing the course, students should be able to:
- Define the typology of conflicts
- Clarify the main conflicts currently
- Characterize ethnic conflicts
- Explain the issue of genocide
Language: English

KVS/YHZ1Q - History of Czech Lands 1
Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Credits only
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Pavel Kopeček
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
Samo's Empire and Great Moravia. Czech state in 10th-12th century. Czech state during the reign of the Luxemburg. Czech lands during George of Poděbrady and Jagelović. Advent to power of the Habsburgs. Czech uprising, the Thirty Years War and. Czech country at the time of enlightened absolutism. The Habsburg monarchy at the time of the French Revolution and the Napoleonic wars. Czech National Revival. Revolutionary years 1848–1849.
Language: English

KVS/YHZ2Q - History of Czech Lands 2
Number of ECTS credits:	4	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	70 % attendance	Lecturer:	Pavel Kopeček
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
World War I and the establishment of Czechoslovakia. I. and II. Czechoslovak Republic - political, economic and cultural development. II. world war, occupation and liberation of Czechoslovakia. Czechoslovakia in the postwar world, the establishment of the communist system. 60s of the 20th century in Czechoslovakia, the Prague Spring and normalization. 80s of the 20th century in Czechoslovakia, the end of the totalitarian regime and the dissolution of Czechoslovakia.
Language: English

KVS/YMVZQ – International Relations
Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Colloquy
Completion requirements:	80% attendance	Lecturer:	David Hampl
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
The lectures will provide students with selected topics in the field of international relations. At the seminar will analyze selected issues in international relations with emphasis on the role of international organizations and conflict resolution After completing the course, students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Define basic concepts- Clarify the functioning of the international political system- Characterize the issue of international organizations Language: English

KVS/YPMUL – Multiculturalism – Intercultural Education
Number of ECTS credits:	2	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	80% attendance	Lecturer:	Gabriela Cingelová
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
The starting points and changes in multicultural education and introduction to projects, dealing with the issues of multi and intercultural education. Working with activation and experiential methods. Communicating with minorities, ethnic conflict resolution, curriculum design in civics, action plan for a multicultural school.
Language: English

KVS/YEPS – Political Systems
Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Credits only
Completion requirements:	80% attendance	Lecturer:	Gabriela Cingelová
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
The course explains important concepts of political science. In each topic the students will be provided with fundamental issues and disciplines of political science. Particularly with the structures, processes and roles of political systems. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Political systems – overview2. Constitution, division of political power3. Parliamentarism, electoral system4. Parties, societies5. Political processes6. Religion and politics7. Elites and "Leadership"

- 8. political system of the USA
- 9. Small states in Europe
- 10. Transformation of political Systems
- 11. Case studies China – India
- 12. Political system – Czech Republic

Language: English

KPG/YLATQ – Law for Teachers

Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Credits only
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Zdenka Nováková
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
This course is aimed at increasing legal consciousness, cognition basic of legal thinking, basic legal institutes, rules and relationships which adjust organization, development education, labour relationships and ability to be knowledgeable in legal codification in continuity of legal condition of law relationships which persons meet in society.
Language: English

KPG/YLEGI – Legislation in Educational System in Czech Schools

Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Credits only
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Zdenka Nováková
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
This course discusses the legislative regulation of Czech education system, focus on educational programs, education system of schools and school facilities and the effect of teaching staff including prerequisites performance of teachers such as legal capacity, professional qualification, integrity, medical fitness and knowledge of Czech language.
Language: English

KPG/YAGSE – Government in the Sphere of Education

Faculty of Education and Sports Education
Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Credits only
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Zdenka Nováková
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
This course describe system of public administration and self-government in area of education such as the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports, the Czech School Inspectorate and regional institutions in the field of education.
Language: English

KVS/YDNAQ – History of Religion
Number of ECTS credits:	4	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Giuseppe Maiello
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
The course focuses on an overview on world religions and their role in the contemporary world. After completing the course, students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Define basic religionistic terms,- Clarify the historical background and cultural context in the early stages of forming religions,- Explain the essence of each religion,- Characterize typical individual signs and manifestations of religions,- Compare various conceptions of the history of religions,- Critically evaluates information given by today's media on various religions.
Language: English

KVS/YSOCQ – Sociology
Number of ECTS credits:	4	Course completion:	Colloquy
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Giuseppe Maiello
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
The objective of the lectures is to present the fundamental paradigms of sociological thinking and the fundamental terms used for description of social reality. The objective of the seminars is to introduce terms from primary sociological sources and perspectives of various theories on social reality.
Language: English

KVS/YGHIQ – Gender in the Historical Context
Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Pre-Exam Credit
Completion requirements:	70% attendance	Lecturer:	Tomáš Hubálek
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
The seminar will offer an unusual view of the development and changes in the company's approach to the issue of gender. It is set in a historical framework, which will highlight the main concerns of various epochs and describes ways to solve them in history from antiquity to the present. Will be accentuated most significant historical milestones, influencing corporate behavior, shifts in thinking and behavior of people in this area.
Language: English

KVS/YAEVQ – Applied Ethics in Education for Citizens

Number of ECTS credits:	3	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	70 % attendance	Lecturer:	Tomáš Hubálek
Semester in which the course is taught:		Winter semester
Description:
The course will be emphasis on areas of applied ethics, which relate to the current educational reality, society and democracy. Students will become familiar with various parts of social life, and their links with the ethical theories, learn important values for specific areas and will be able to specify examples of ethical behavior in a context.
Language: English

KVS/YPEKO – Economy

Number of ECTS credits:	4	Course completion:	Exam
Completion requirements:	70 % attendance	Lecturer:	Alena Opletalová
Semester in which the course is taught:		both summer and winter
Description:
The course Economics analyzes cooperation and situations, which appear among consumers, companies and the state. We start with microeconomics, continue with macroeconomics and economic policy, use examples from the practice and the current situation in our country and the world.
Language: English			