

A Compendium of Educational, Social and Human Sciences (PDF/YCESH)

Summer term 2021/2022

Thursday, 1:15pm – 2:45pm, Room N11

We would like to warmly welcome all international students of the Faculty of Education to our lecture series entitled A Compendium of Educational, Social and Human Sciences. The lectures will be held regularly once a week (90 min lesson per week).

The aim of the series is to make international students a little bit more familiar with various aspects of life and education in the Czech Republic, whilst international students can bring their own views on various issues. In the end, this will be a great educational and multicultural experience for all.

An exchange student who enrolls in the course may earn 5 credits upon successful completion of the course requirements, which are:

- minimum participation of 80 % of the lectures
- submission of an 6-page essay on one of the topics covered (bibliography min. 8 citations)
- presentation of the essay at the end of the course.

Planned lectures include (the schedule or content of lectures is subject to change):

24 February	Basic Aspects of the Czech Language: a Friendly Overview Michal Kříž, KČJ The course will be aimed at basic vocabulary and phrases that are used in the Czech language. Both theory and practical exercises will be included.
3 March	Introduction to Czech life and history Alena Vavrdová, KPV The objective of the lecture is to acquire a basic knowledge of the history and geography of the Czech Republic as well as an insight into life in the country.
10 March	Understanding Classroom Interaction Danping Peng, UPSS You will learn about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• turn-taking patterns and their function• question types and their effects on classroom talk• the role of intonation, gesture and other subtle cues on interaction• types and functions of classroom storytelling• types of class participation and their effects
17 March	Anthropology as a transdisciplinary science Kristína Tománková, KAZ Anthropology is the study of man, what the human being is, what defines him and his world, and what makes us special (or not). Anthropology is a rather hybrid discipline, drawing on different methods borrowed from natural sciences, humanities, and social sciences. This lecture offers an introduction to the Anthropology science field. Students will learn how scientific method can be used in different anthropology subfields, also.

24 March	Developing mathematical skills for everyday life Martina Uhlířová, KMT In various situations in our daily lives, we need knowledge of mathematics. The development of mathematical literacy is one of the basic requirements of contemporary school education. Attention will be focused to defining the concept of mathematical literacy and determining its subcategories. At the meeting will be presented examples of specific activities for the development of mathematical thinking of children and adults.
31 March	Legislation Aspects of Educational System in the Czech Republic Zdenka Nováková, UPSS This lecture focuses on the legal aspects of the educational process in the Czech education system, especially at the regional legislative basis and legislative basis for higher education, quality of education, qualification requirements for the performance of the teaching staff including career system options for teachers.
7 April	German Culture in the Czech Republic Jan Kubica, UCJ Prague German authors of the older generation (Leo Perutz, Alfred Kubin, Gustav Meyring, Rainer Maria Rilke) and the authors of the younger generation (Max Brod, Franz Kafka, Franz Werfel, Egon Erwin Kisch) sought solidarity with the Czech culture, which was manifested in prose and journalism. Multicultural feature of the former artistic life seems to be current even nowadays.
14 April	English as a Global Language Josef Nevařil, UCJ The aim of this seminar is to briefly look at the history of English and the current changes it has been undergoing as a result of its globalisation. Additionally, we will attempt a peek into its near future.
21 April	Workplace bullying in the Czech Republic Simona Dobešová Cakirpaloglu, KPS The aim of the lecture is to give the students an overview of the history of the main concept of workplace bullying as well as an insight into the personality of the actors of bullying. A part of the lecture will be devoted to the causes and the consequences of this phenomenon. The prevention of workplace bullying will be discussed as well.
28 April	Post shoa. Czech Jewish Literature after 1945 Eva Maria Hrdinová The lecture deals with the subjects of Judaism ("jewish topics") in Czech literature after 1945. The works by Ladislav Fuks, Josef Škvorecký or Vlasta Sidonová are to be interpreted. The time span of the authors to be treated is quite wide. We are particularly interested in the question of Jewish cultural memory in the sense of Jan and Aleida Assmann and also in the sense of literary motif research. The presence or absence of the topic "holocaust" is of course also in the foreground
5 May	Presentations of students' essays, completion of the course
